Happy New Year!

Well, it is the third year in a row I have started the new year off talking about our Memory Care. I am more than grateful to announce that we are nearing the end of this decade long process. We will be shouting from the rooftops our announcement of the grand opening very soon! We know that many of you have been patiently waiting to move your loved one into the new building. Believe you me when I say that we are all beyond excited to finally see our beautiful Memory Care come to fruition and fully open with lots of love & caring to share! VERY SOON we will do tours of the new property! See Trey for more information!

We wish each and every one of you a joyful and healthy 2024!
